
A WORD FROM MARY SHARON

I am continually in awe of the sacred nature of my work as spiritual director—listening, attending, drawing forth, and accompanying individuals as they decipher life’s invitations and discern God’s mission for their life.

I listen because it is in my nature to listen, to evoke, to invite, to affirm, to challenge, and to accompany individuals through the challenges.

While a customary offering is asked, I do not “provide a service.” Rather, I offer a relationship of holy conversation, with Christ at the center.

I believe that every baptized man and woman is anointed for a particular work of love in this world. My work is to call forth that anointing and give words to that work of love in the lives of those whom I accompany.

The customary offering is US$60.

FREQUENT ISSUES IN SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

Mary Sharon addresses these topics:

- Loss of direction approaching or following life transitions
- A lagging prayer life
- A lack of impelling mission, or a sense of “mission drift”
- Unfreedom in family, personal, or work relationships
- A felt sense of being invited to “something more”

Mary Sharon has a keen ability to identify seasons of apprenticeship, and patterns of fruitfulness, that point to a deepening of mission.
